A check of DYCLOSATIC Salzburg reveals the following information:

According to information supplied this office, the subject was in operational contact with UNCLEMIE for some time on an abortive deflection known as the GAVILLOV deflection. UNCLEMIE notes that UNCLEMIE never had reason to doubt subject's good will. Although he did certainly fall for a couple of operational blunders. It is acknowledged by Clarence L. Updike that subject is a carded informant of GIC Salzburg. Updike states that subject is a "unit" of assignments to the "Russian Congregation headed by Cardinal Tisserant". It is noted that he claims he is on good terms with all the Russian folk, including the Orthodox Russians.

Following is a summary of UNCLEMIE reports concerning the subject and his activities:

Report dated 16 May 1951 is concerned with the deflections of the subject by one Alexis TURKO. This matter has also reported in UNCLEMIE Rep. 51-20 dated 16 Jul 1952. TURKO was in contact with the Soviet representation concerning thru go another Russian D. At one time TURKO made widespread ill-founded statements with regard to the Soviets. However, they were not accepted and TURKO was considered by a Soviet agent and/or a psychopath.

Report dated 16 March 1951 is concerned with plans for a defector/defection operation. The writer requests file checks on a series of people who are either in contact with the subject or are associates. These names will be given below in a list of subject's contacts.

Report dated 4 April 1951 refers to letters that the Soviet Mission sends subject in an attempt to encourage him to return to the U.S.S.R.

Report dated 5 April 1951 refers to a D.C. contact of subject who had on occasions made trips into the Soviet Zone. During one trip in January 1951 this individual met a recruiting approach by a Russian. In this contact did not develop.

Report dated 5 April 1951 concerns a planned defector operation. Report concerns itself with the fact that a defector had advised before the necessary preparations had been laid on.

Report dated 10 April 1951 concerns itself with the visit of KGB, Austria, Alexander Parfenov, who, it is reported, sought a very cooperative and/or forced subject July collaboration. Report notes that this collaboration will be conducted on a limited basis. Parfenov informed subject of NTS a U. S. support to a secret radio station in Germany. The NTS leader also informed the subject of a newly set up propaganda and propaganda bureau for defectors in eastern Berlin. Partinov asked the question of such a center in Izma. This report requests a file check on another NTS member working with subject.

Report dated 13 April 1951 refers once more to the premature operation of the defector operation. The report mentions some confusion in the procurement of 12 documents for the prospective defectors. The report also states the defector and his operations concerning defectors in Vienna.

Report dated 24 April 1951 refers again to the above defectors and report that the defector had been spirited away to the French zone of Germany by other Russians. This report also concerned itself with intelligence information supplied by the defector.

Report dated 9 May 1951 concerns contacts of subject in Berlin with Otto Glaser, chief of GAF. A mention is made of the SOEDO. The SOEDO is also mentioned. Paying off of the KGB Austria is again mentioned as a continuing collaboration of the KGB Central office at Izma would suffice. Partinov mentioned that the KGB expected large financial support from the U. S. but did not specify this particular organization. It is reported that a Soviet Major General had offered subject the command of a division illustrated (and) with a Catholic tendency for the KGB and friends.

Report dated 26 June 1951 mentions the loss by a Father Mazzoni, Canadian agent, and contact of subject of a suitcase containing Israeli 100 peso lottery, on 27 May 1951 during a trip from Haardkirchen to Salzburg. The suitcase was supposed to have been retained by the 'yidiot' by GDO, although there was some confusion in connection with its return.

Report dated 8 August 1951 concerns proposed Soviet defector Yevgeny Devjilov. This report covers detailed planning for his defection, escape and evacuation. From inference in the report subject was to supply Salzburg contact.

Report dated 28 August 1951 concerns the proposed defection of two guards from the Urfaer Assenturatur. Subject and other members of his cell, plus order were planned to support this defection.
